And let our army be diſcharged too,
And,good my lord,ſo pleaſe you,let our traines
March by vs,that we may peruſe the men,
VVe ſhould haue coap't withall.
Biſhop Go,good Lord Haſtings,
And ere they be diſmiſt,let them march by.enter Weſtmerland.
Prince I truſt Lords we ſhal lie to night togither:
Now cooſin,wherefore ſtands our army ſtil?
Weſt. The Leaders hauing charge from you to ſtand,
Wil not goe off vntil they heare you ſpeake.
Prince They know their dueties. enter Haſtings
Haſtings My lord,our army is diſperſt already,
Like youthfull ſteeres vnyoakt they take their courſes, Eaſt,weaſt,north,ſouth,or like a ſchoole broke vp,
Each hurries toward his home, and ſporting place.
Weſt. Good tidings my lord Haſtings,for the which I do areſt thee traitor of high treaſon,
And you lord Archbiſhop,and you lord Mowbray,
Of capitall treaſon I attach you both.
Mowbray Is this proceeding iuſt and honorable?
Weſt. Is your aſſembly ſo?
Biſhop will you thus breake your faith?
Prince I pawnde thee none,
I promiſt you redreſſe of theſe ſame grieuances
Whereof you did complaine, which by mine honour
I will performe,with a moſt chriſtian care.
But for you rebels, looke to taſte the due Meete for rebellion:
Moſt ſhallowly did you theſe armes commence,
Fondly brought heere,and fooliſhly ſent hence.
Strike vp our drummes,purſue the ſcattred ſtray:
God,and not we,hath ſafely fought to day:
Some guard this traitour to the blocke of death,
Treaſons true bed,and yeelder vp of breath.
Alarum Enter Falſtaffe excurſions
Fal. whats your name ſir, of what condition are you, and of

of what place?
Cole. I am a Knight ſir , and my name is Cole
Dale.
Fal. well then,Colleuile is your name,a Knight
gree,and your place the dale: Coleuile ſhalbe ſtill y a traitor your degree, & the dungeon your place, a enough,ſo ſhall you be ſtil Colleuile of the Dale.
Colle. Are not you ſir Iohn Falſtaffe?
Fal. As good a man as he ſir,who ere I am: do ſir,or ſhall I ſweat for you? if I doe ſweate, they ar of thy louers, and they weepe for thy death, theref vp feare and trembling, and do obſeruance to my n Colle. I think you are ſir Iohn Falſtaffe,and in t yeelde me.
Fal. I haue a whole ſchoole of tongs in this belly and not a tongue of them all ſpeakes any other wo name,and I had but a belly of any indifferencie,I w
the moſt actiue fellow in Europe: my womb,my w womb vndoes me,heere comes our Generall.
Enter Iohn Weſtmerland,and the reſt.
Iohn The heate is paſt,follow no further now,
Call in the powers good cooſin Weſtmerland.
Now Falſtaffe, where haue you beene all this while?
VVhen euery thing is ended,then you come:
Theſe tardy trickes of yours wil on my life
One time or other breake ſome gallowes backe.
Fal. I would bee ſory my lord,but it ſhoulde bee neuer knew yet but Rebuke and Checke, was the re
Valor:do you thinke me a ſwallow,an arrow,or a bu
I in my poore and old motion the expedition of tho haue ſpeeded hither with the very extreameſt inch o lity, I haue foundred nineſcore and od poſtes, and he tainted as I am , haue in my pure and immaculate va ken ſir Iohn Colleuile of the Dale,a moſt furious Kn valorous enemy, : but what of that? he ſawe me, and that I may iuſtly ſay with the hooke-noſde fellow o